(1) That the town anekal is not big and cannot find pupils for for two English schools, (the London Mission has a Middle school at Arekal)

(2) The cost of the proposed Convent would be about from 20 30 to 40 per Mensem

(3) The mission school would be opened by the opening of the English classes.

SIR

With reference to your docket No 618 Ed dated 5 August 1903, I have the honor to return the two petitions from the people of Anekal Nos 247 and 187 dated 16 July 1903 praying for the conversion of the Taluk Kannada School at Anekal into an Anglo Vernacular School, and to inform you that for many years past, probably from a date previous to 1889, the London Mission School at Anekal has been teaching English The Government Taluk School has all along been teaching Kannada only The monthly grant of the Lord on Mission School was increased from Rs 15 to 30 from July 1889, and from Rs 30 to 35 from 1st September 1893 Since 1895 Anekal has suffered grievously from plague and both the Mission School and the Government Kannada School have greatly declined in strength The average daily attendance of the Mission School was 75 and that of the Government School 61 last year The Mission School for some time until about a year ago did not give much satisfaction, but as both Schools suffered heavily on account of plague it was difficult to prove that the management or teaching of the Mission School was bad. Of late the management of the School has come under Rev J Mather BA, BD, and the School has shown great improvement Last year three boys passed the Lower Secondary Examination in English and the English lessons are given after 12 noon as in all Anglo-Vernacular Schools

It is easy therefore for the boys of the Government Kannada School to attend the English classes of the Mission School 2 The petitioners say that as there are more than one teacher on the staff of the Kannada School knowing English, English can be taught with the same staff and without additional cost to Government In this new they are mistaken If English has to be taught, two additional teachers at a cost of Rs 30 to 40 will have to be employed The town of Anekal cannot provide a sufficient number of pupils for two English Schools, and the opening of English classes in the Government School, for which naturally the people have a great partiality, would ruin the Mission School

The petitions moreover appear to me to be spurious being apparently inspired by some teachers of the Government School who wish to increase the importance of their School at the cost of the Mission School I regret therefore my inability to recommend that the prayer of the petitioners may be granted As an aided School and the first English School opened in the town, the Mission School has a strong claim upon the consideration and support of Government

I have the honour to
Sir
Your most obedient Servant
